Subject: English

English – Key

I. Verbs: A verb is a word that is used to denote an action, the condition of the subject or what is possessed by the subject

Kinds of Verbs

Transitive Verbs

[A Verb which requires an Object to complete its meaning is called a transitive Verb.]

Ex1: Sana likes doughnuts.

Hint: To find out the object of the verb, Ask: Whom or what received the action?

So, ask the question “ What does Sana like ?” the answer is doughnuts” so likes is a transitive verb.

Ex 2: Saket is Studying.

In this sentence, the verb is ‘is studying’ which did not take any object to make complete sense.

So, ‘is studying’ is intransitive verb.

Asmi: Hello Ayan!How are you?

Ayan: I am alright. What about you?

Asmi: I am doing well. I see you are absorbed in deep thought.

Is everything good with you?

Ayan: As a head boy, I am thinking about maintaining physical distancing at school.

Asmi: Don't panic, click a static.

Ayan : Students must not sit closely, physical distancing should be maintained.

Each and every student must maintain self hygiene.

Children below 10 years are restricted to indoors.

Asmi : Excuse me! What is physical distancing?

Ayan: Creating a distance between yourself and the other person at a minimum of two meters.

In clear, it must be length of a hockey stick especially in outdoors.

Asmi: Alright, I believe that it is wiser to discuss this with principal ma'am for more inputs.

Ayan: You are right my friend. Then, I shall discuss with ma'am to derive a prudent decision.
