2) Draw up a list of the different festivals celebrated in your locality. Which of these celebrations are shared by members of different regional and religious communities?

This question cannot have one correct response. First of all, make a list of all the festivals celebrated in your locality. Then, speak to the members of your locality to find the similarity in these festivals with respect to the members of different regional and religious communities.

3) What do you think living in India with its rich heritage of diversity adds to your life?

To know and experience the geographical, biological, political, social and cultural diversity of India adds value to one's life. The variety that surrounds us helps us develop, and become tolerant towards difference. Coming into contact with different individuals representing different points of view—in terms of religion, region, language and tradition—broadens one's understanding of the self and the other.

4) Make a list of all the animals. For each one, describe what they may have been used for.

Animal Use

- Sheep For wool and meat
- Goat For meat and milk
- Cattle For milk and meat
- Dog For herding livestock
- Ox To plough the fields
- Pig For meat

5) Why do people who grow crops have to stay in the same place for a long time?

People who grow crops have to stay in the same place for a long time because they have to look after the plants, water them, weed the fields, drive away animals and birds and use and store the grains carefully.
